Black Country Museum - Fiendish Felons	Black Country Living Museum, Tipton Road, Dudley, DY1 4SQ	0121 557 9643	Saturday 26 October - Sunday 3 November, 10am - 5pm Discover a fiendishly good day out this October half term at one of the UK's biggest living museums! Explore 26 acres of period shops and houses as you uncover the dastardly deeds of criminals of the past at our 'Fiendish Felons'-themed half term. Meet brand new historic characters and help track down a vile villain who has been causing mischief in the village. Take on our kid-friendly trail and use your detective skills to help solve a Black Country crime wave. Take part in a sensational Victorian criminal trial and help the judge reach a verdict. Hone your investigative talents in our detective school as you try your hand at examining evidence, lifting fingerprints and even posing for your own mugshot! Plus, you'll get to discover the delights of playtime in the last century, banish boredom with traditional street games including hopscotch and skipping. Take up the challenge to see how long you can keep the hoop rolling in the hoop and stick game and test your skill with a cup and ball and the whip and top.	0	99

Explore period shops and houses set across the Museum's award-winning 26 acres and discover treats, tricks and terrifying tales of old as the Museum comes to life with Halloween entertainment. There's plenty to get stuck into - brave the creepy crawlie display, meet our 'creepy characters' or win a prize for best-dressed ghoul in a costume parade. Daring visitors can even descend on foot 'into the thick' of the Museum's 'monstrous' mine. Watch out though, you never know what you might find down there. As always, visitors will be able to tantalise their tastebuds with some devilishly good Halloween fare including the Museum's famous 1930s-style fish and chips. Little devils can trick or treat along the Museum's atmospheric cobbled streets as characters dish out the good stuff.	0	99

On July 20 1969 the United Apollo 11 was the first manned mission to land on the moon. At this time, there was no such thing as YouTube. If you missed watching an important event on TV you couldn't just watch it on catch up or google it, you had to watch it as it happened. Over 1 billion people sat around television sets to watch as Neil Armstrong became the first person to set foot on the moon. The world changed forever as he so famously said "That's one small step for man. One giant leap for mankind". Join us for a spectacular pyrotechnic display set to inspirational music as we go back in time to that historic moment and take you to the moon and back. See the website for costs information or contact to book tickets or for further details.	0	99

Since Little Mix formed in front of our very own eyes on The X Factor in 2011 they have become the biggest girl group on the planet and have churned out amazing chart hits such as Wings, DNA, Change Your Life, Move, How Ya Doin'? and Black Magic, to name a few. Little Fix deliver a high-energy show and replicate the stage presence and vocal abilities of the original group with stunning stage outfits to match. The band power through all of Little Mix's biggest hits with identical choreography and vocal finesse proving that "Girl Power" is back on the agenda. Tickets cost £16 for adults, £14 for children and a family of four costs £55. Contact provider for further information and to book tickets.	0	99
